Cold Weather Spreads Over the Nation

By The Associated Press

Wintry weather was back in full force in northern areas of the mid-continent today, with biting cold, northerly winds and snow.

The cold spread across the plains states and the upper Mississippi Valley and was felt as far south as the Texas Panhandle. Cold wave warnings were posted for much of the area.

Temperatures were around 10 degrees below zero in most of North Dakota and Montana and subzero readings also were reported in northern sections of South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Readings were some 30 degrees lower in South Dakota and Nebraska compared with yesterday morning. Most areas reported zero or below.

The line of separation between the cold and warm air extended from the Texas Panhandle Kansas, Central Iowa and Western Wisconsin. At Amarillo, Tex., it was a chilly 22 while to the east at Hobart, Okla., the reading was 48.

Strong northerly winds and a broad belt of snow accompanied the cold air into the plains and upper Mississippi Valley yesterday. Snow falls in parts of South Dakota measured 4 to 7 inches and more than 4 inches fell in Minnesota.

The snow extended from the upper Great Lakes region southward to Kansas, with freezing rain and snow mixed in parts of Kansas and the Texas Panhandle.

Compromise Road Fund Split Is Challenged

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The so-called compromise bill to increase Arkansas cities' share of highway funds leaving the counties unchanged, was challenged today by two separate bills favoring counties.

The result could mean a test of power between the Arkansas County Judges and the Arkansas Municipal League.

One of the new measures dropped into the House this morning would give counties another 1 1/2 million dollars out of State Highway Department funds. The other would increase the gasoline tax by 1/2 cent a gallon and give the entire proceeds to the counties.

Rep. Van Dalsem of Perry County introduced the measure to give counties a flat 1 1/2 million dollars. The increased gasoline tax measure was put in by Rep. Eugene Ploeman of Mississippi County and Rep. Pat Teague of Carroll.

Their plan would eventually stabilize revenues on a road usage formula: 75 per cent of net revenues for the Highway Department, 15 per cent for the counties and 10 per cent for cities.

Cities would receive an increase of from one million dollars to 3 1/2 million; the counties share would remain the same for the next eight or 10 years; the state highways fund would be cut by the amount of the cities' increase.

The bill also would repeal the act which permits cities to levy an automobile license fee. The repeal would become effective in 1958.

The plan—based on percentage of road usage—involved from a similar proposal advanced by J.B. Lambert of Helena, chairman of the state Chamber of Commerce's Committee for Adequate Roads. When Lambert's plan was presented at a public hearing, Glen Zimmerman, executive secretary of the Arkansas Municipal League, said his only objection was that it would not become fully effective.

Hope Man Slightly Injured in Wreck

Paul Raley was shaken up yesterday when an auto which he was driving collided with D&S Packing Company truck in the 500 block on West Third Street. Mr. Raley was taken to a local hospital where he spent the night, but he was not believed seriously hurt.

Investigating City Policeman Raymond Pedron said Mr. Raley, in process of turning left into his driveway, simply pulled over the center lane and his auto was hit. He said Mr. Raley would be charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

The auto was badly smashed but the truck, driven by L. S. Lumpkin, was not seriously damaged.

Sales Tax on Liquor Upheld in Senate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Senate today rejected a proposal which would have removed the 3 per cent excise tax on liquor.

The sponsor of the measure, Sen. Arlie Gregory of North Little Rock, argued that the net loss in revenues would not be 3 per cent.

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison, whose entire district is dry, spoke against the measure. Milum was asked if his district benefited from the tax.

"Yes, I suppose so," Milum said. He added, "I think dry and vote wet."

The vote was 19-9. The excise tax does not include gallonage taxes which are assessed at the wholesale level.

The Senate unanimously proved a House bill which would make $55 the basis for computing old age welfare payments.

FBI's Hoover Gets Freedoms Top Honor

By LEE LINDER

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI today was awarded Freedoms Foundation's highest honor "for his resolute leadership against godless communism."

Hoover, head of the FBI since 1935, was among 752 individuals, business, organizations and schools cited in a special George Washington's Birthday ceremony for further "the American way of life" by what they said, wrote or did.

In a flag-draped, converted Revolutionary War barn that overlooks the hilly fields where Washington's bedraggled army spent the bitter winter of 1777-78, Hoover accepted the George Washington Award — $5,000 and a special honor medal — for making what the foundation called "the most important contribution during the 1956 by an individual or group toward the improvement of the American structure of freedom."

Specifically, the foundation at its eighth annual awards presentation honored the FBI chief "for his devotion beyond duty to the cause of human liberty through four decades for his resolute leadership against godless communism—domestic and international; for his qualities of character and courage, an example to the youth of the United States for all time to come."

159 Aboard Big Plane That Crash Lands, 15 Hurt

SEOUL, Korea, (UP) — A U. S. Air Force C-124 Globemaster with 159 persons aboard crash-landed tonight on a tiny island in the Han river near Seoul, injuring scores of persons.

There were no immediate reports of fatalities but many passengers were reported seriously injured.

By midnight, more than four hours after the crash, 56 injured had been evacuated by Army helicopters to a hospital 20 miles away. A hospital spokesman said most of them suffered burns and fractures.

Four East Air Force headquarters said the big transport was carrying 10 crewmen and 149 passengers—most of them servicemen flying to Japan for rest and recreation leaves.

The Air Force said the plane crashed at 7:45 p.m. (5:45 a. m. EST) on a small island some 11 miles northwest of Kimpo Airbase, South of Seoul.

The C-124 apparently skidded across the island after badly crashing and ended up partially submerged in the freezing waters of the Han river.

Officials said the plane apparently developed engine trouble and made the emergency landing about 20 miles after taking off from Kimpo Air Base.

Eight Army helicopters were sent to the crash scene and immediately began ferrying the wounded to the 121st evacuation hospital in Ascom city. Thirty ambulances rushed to the riverside but were unable to aid in the evacuation.

The Globemaster was assigned to the 374th troop carrier wing stationed at Achikawa Air Base near Tokyo.

Remnants of Rocket May Stay Unknown

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP) — The location of the remnants of an errant military rocket apparently may remain locked unknown in the high Rockies of Colorado or the colored Desert reaches from Utah.

Yesterday the 30 1/2 foot long matador escaped remote controls operated from Holloman Air Development Center. Officials said it had about an hour's fuel left.

They said they believe it soared northwestward over five-sixths of New Mexico and probably landed in southwest Colorado or southeast Utah, the region is sparsely populated, a land where industry is based on ranching, mining, logging, natural gas and oil.

The Air Force planned to give up its search this morning for the big missile, which has a wingspan of 27.9 feet, a ceiling of more than 35,000 feet and a speed in excess of 650 miles an hour.

Spokesmen for the Air Force said the search would be abandoned because a continuation of the coal more than the missile is worth," they said it did not carry an explosive warhead and was equipped only with instruments.

This test center deep in south-central New Mexico, the ground-to-ground guided missile which is used as a tactical weapon, ran wild.

Military jets in New Mexico and Utah were sent up of try to find the pilotless missile. The search was in vain.

All Around Town

Purely tournament speculation but as of right now, 10:30 a. m. Friday, it looks like Ashdown and Alma could be in the finals Saturday night in the Class A Girls State tournament.

Favorite was England's Number 22, Mary Ruth Neal whose team lost to Drew Central last night. . . she is one of the better ball players of the tournament along with Ashdown's McDowell girls. . . Drew Central's Sue Eubanks. . . Bryant Phyllis Hamilton with the Elvis haircut. . . and Alma's little Delma Stephens who can hold her own with any of them. . . Jones' field house was nearly full for the second round quarter-finals play and tonight semifinals should really pack them in.

Recently Mrs. Mildred Rogers of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. presented Mrs. Maggie Sue Garrett and Mrs. Margie Lou Gunter with 10-year perfect attendance pins. . . Mrs. Louise Warren received a 7-year pin and Mrs. Lena Maryman received a 4-year attendance pin.

TITULAR HEAD of the Methodist Churches of the World, Bishop Iven Lee Holt, will give a series of lectures at First Methodist Church here from February 27 through March 4, during observance of Week of Dedication. He will speak twice daily during this period.

Jeff H. Williams, HUMORIST, lawyer and philosopher, Jeff H. Williams, Hot Springs, will be principal speaker at the annual Ladies' Night dinner of Hope Rotary Club, Monday at 6:30 p. m. at Hotel Barlow. Born in Texas, he grew up in Arkansas. He has spoken in every state and is widely acclaimed for his "storehouse of humor to illustrate a great deal of common sense policies."

No Teacher Hike This Year Says Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) Gov. Orval Faubus today said that he would teachers salary increase this school year if the measure should pass both legislative branches.

Faubus said that he could not approve the bill because it would prevent using new tax money for proposed construction of about six million dollars this fiscal year and would prevent setting up a proper cushion fund to increase teachers' pay at the beginning of the next school year in September.

Asked if this veto meant he definitely would veto the bill if it reached him, Faubus said he would.

Bills to increase state taxes by about 22 million dollars a year have become law.

More than 14 million dollars of this new revenue will go to the public school fund with most of it pledged for teacher salary increases. These pay boosts will not be effective until beginning of the next school year.

On Wednesday, Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison introduced a bill for a supplemental appropriation of one million dollars this year to increase salaries by not more than $75 a teacher.

This is the bill which Faubus told the news conference he opposed.

Britain, France Split With U. S. Over Israeli

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Britain and France split today with the United States over the question of reprisals against Israel, and Britain was reported seeking a compromise solution to prevent an open break.

Premier Guy Mollet of France meeting on the Mid-East and his forthcoming talks with President Eisenhower. Reliable sources said he would demand a strong declaration of support for Israel.

At the same time authoritative sources in London said Britain's Conservative government was not prepared to go along with reprisals which the United States may now demand.

The two developments came as Israel appealed to the world and especially the United States for "understanding" in its refusal to quit Egyptian territory without firm guarantees.

Knowland Not to Go Along With Proposal

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he will not support a Senate move to restore the language President Eisenhower originally asked in his Middle East resolution.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.), criticizing changes made by two Senate committees, proposed yesterday a return to the phrasing in the original resolution passed by the House.

But Knowland, the Senate's Republican leader, said in an interview, "he expects no party fight over the matter and added: 'As I understand it, the resolution as reported by the Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees is satisfactory to the administration and I expect to support it.'" he Senate devotes part of its time today to a traditional reading by Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) of Washington's Farewell Address, but Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.), the Democratic leader, said debate on the Middle East resolution would continue "if there are any senators who desire to speak on it at this time."

Arab Bloc Is Gambling on U. S. Support

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) Gambling on American support, the Arab bloc in the United Nations planned to ask the U. N. Assembly today to clamp crippling economic and military sanctions on Israel.

The 271-nation Asian-African group was expected to bring the sanctions demand before the General Assembly this afternoon, then wait for the United States to declare its position.

Leaders of the group held last-minute conferences on the precise wording of the resolution. Basically it reportedly would call on U.N. members to refrain from giving financial, economic or military aid to Israel because of her refusal to pull out of the Gaza Strip and the Egyptian coast on the Gulf of Aqaba.

THE BEST CROWD TO FOLLOW IS THE CROWD GOING TO CHURCH

There's No Evil There Except What You Carry With You

DEEP YEARNING

...for God, or is it hero-worship, or is it a desire to be shown the way... is it a dream? Well, heroes are God's occasion for awakening in His children a yearning to be one. Dreams are the doorsteps up which one must climb to reach this higher elevation. Be it hero-worship or a longing for God, it is his dream and a child is at his best when he dreams. His dreams are his prayers. God and your son, together, can do great things. But they can do better if a father joins God and his son in the dream-prayer. Here a father meets, face-to-face, one of the finer experiences of life... his own son in fervent prayer. Scenes like this cause a father to be interested in things that have to do with life rather than just a living. A prayer life is the result of church teaching and good raising. ...has your child learned to pray??? To be good and kind and patient are fine but add church attendance to the list and you'll have the ingredients which go into every good man.

COST OF LIVING CONTINUES UPWARD TREND
WASHINGTON (UP) The government reported today that the cost of living climbed to a new record in January for the fifth consecutive month.
The increase will bring automatic cost of living pay increases for 1.4 million workers.
The Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that its consumer price index rose two-tenths of one per cent between December and January, to 118.2 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. The index has reached new record levels each month since September, 1956.
HLS Commissioner Ewan Clague, asked about the outlook for February, said he expects it will continue "to creep up like this."
The January increase means that 1.1 million automobile, farm equipment and aircraft factory workers will get a penny an hour pay hike on March 1.
The bureau said another 300,000 workers in the electrical and some other industries also will get pay raises because their wage contracts also contain cost of living escalator clauses.

$60 Million Is Chopped Off of Budget

WASHINGTON (UP) — The House Appropriations committee has chopped $60.8 million today out of President Eisenhower's budget request for the Interior Department. The 12 per cent cut — the second approved by the committee so far in Mr. Eisenhower's record $71.8 billion peacetime spending budget — would give the department and minor related agencies $454.4 million for the 12 months starting July 1.

The president had asked for $515.2 million. The economy-minded committee members told the House that "substantial reduction" must be made all along the line to relieve the drain of federal expenditures on the taxpayers of the nation.

The House yesterday approved the committee's first effort at budget-cutting, passing a bill which cut $80.8 million — or two per cent — in the nearly $4 billion request to run the post office and treasury departments and the U. S. tax courts in fiscal 1958.

The deepest cut in the Interior bill came in the committee's outright rejection of a request for $40 million to continue government subsidies for domestic producers of certain minerals — tungsten, asbestos, fluor spar, and columbium-tantalum.

"The committee feels strongly," its report said, "that it is far more important to grant essential increases for the development and protection of our national resources — including forestry, soil and moisture conservation, land management, geological surveys, and fish and wildlife — for the benefit of the entire nation, than to appropriate a large increase for the benefit of a relatively few mining producers."

Among other major items in the Interior Department bill: The National Park Service got $77,500,000, an increase of $9,500,000 over the current year although $1,071,000 less than the President asked. Included was $2,000,000, as requested, for so-called Mission 66 construction program to meet public demands in the parks by 1966.

The Agriculture Department's Forest Service got $83,570,000, a budget cut of $3,730,000 although an increase of $16,609,250 from the current year. For the Bureau of Indian Affairs the committee allowed $58,56,000, the full sum requested.

Israeli Soon to Reject Ike's Plea

By ELIAV SIMON

JERUSALEM, Israel (UP) — Government sources said tonight that Israel is expected to reject President Eisenhower's call for an unconditional withdrawal of its forces from the Gaza strip and the Sharm El Sheikh area of the Gulf of Aqaba.

The government sources said that Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion, who met twice with his cabinet in emergency sessions today, was expected to telephone Washington his negative reply before he makes an announcement to an extraordinary session of the Knesset (Parliament).

The cabinet met in two sessions to approve Ben-Gurion's speech and to hear a full report from Abba Eban, Israeli ambassador to the United States who flew here for consultations before the final decision.

Informed sources said that Ben-Gurion prepared his speech to Parliament last night before Mr. Eisenhower's message calling for unconditional withdrawal was made and before Eban's arrival early today. Some changes in the speech were inevitable.

Political sources said Israel will not close the door to further talks

DOROTHY DIX

Souvenir From Serviceman Requires No Return Gift

Dear Dorothy Dix: For several months I've been corresponding with a soldier. We've never met, but have exchanged snapshots. His most recent letter said a gift was in the mail for me. Naturally, I'd like to send him a gift in return. Will you suggest something?

Dear Sarah: The gift to you is undoubtedly a souvenir of some sort. You're under no obligation to send a return present, and it would be better not to. A nice note of appreciation will do.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Do you think it's all right for a group of 16-year-old girls to attend a high-school dance, then be escorted home by boys they just met? The boys, of course, have the right intention in mind.

Wanda Dear Wanda: How do you know what the boys have in mind? If they are complete strangers to you, better go as you came — in a group.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Earl and I broke up three weeks ago after dating steadily for several months. We've broken up before, but he has always called, and we've patched things up. This time he hasn't phoned, and I'm very blue. Should I stay home and wait for his call, or date other boys?

Agnes Dear Agnes: Since you assumed that every breakup in your treatment of the boy, his call may be a long time coming, so better date other interested males.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My fiancé is a wonderful, considerate faithful boy. My problems is his ex-girl friend, who persists in calling him to try to get him back. He says he prefers me, but he's always upset after one of her calls that I wonder!

Dear Wilma: If he really prefers you, he should tell the girl that her calls are unwelcome and unwanted.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I have a desire to reacquaint myself with a lady I haven't seen in many years. She is now a widow, I am a widower. However, I know nothing else of her circumstances and am afraid of a rebuff.

Barney Dear Barney: Faint heart never won fair lady, or anything else of importance. Be the brave gallant and take a chance.

on the basis of a Canadian proposal for a Gaza-Aqaba solution. But they did it not accept the unconditional withdrawal without guarantees as requested by Washington.

Eban was returning to Washington tonight or tomorrow morning with new instructions. Government ministers sitting in restaurants during a break between cabinet sessions were approached by Israeli citizens urging that Israel not budge from its positions in the Gaza strip or the Gulf of Aqaba.

Informed sources said Ben-Gurion, in a speech running about 43 minutes would explain why Israel could not accept Mr. Eisenhower's appeal.

Earlier, he was evidence of intensive soul-searching among government leaders in an effort to find a suitable reply to the American president's demand.

Compromise

until 1958-59. The new plan would give cities an immediate $375,000 and would give cities more than 3 1/2 millions in 1957-58.

Bill Smith, Gov. Orval Faubus' legislative secretary, said that Highway Director Herbert Eldridge "wanted a bill which would freeze counties at the amount they are getting now." He said that this could not be done under a percentage formula.

In effect, counties would receive about 6 1/2 millions — the amount they now receive — or 15 per cent of total net revenues, whichever is larger. The 6 1/2 millions now is about 1 1/2 million above the 15 per cent figure but Smith estimated that total revenues would increase in "eight or 10 years" to the point where counties would begin receiving additional money.

County judges apparently will be solidly opposed to the bill. The Senate Wednesday unanimously passed a resolution stating it is opposed to raising gasoline taxes in order to provide additional revenue for counties.

Under the new plan, the Highway Department would receive $25,196,112, the counties $6,208,705 (the amount they now receive), and the cities $3,357,958 (compared to their present allocation of one million).

Lumber said that Eldridge was in favor of the plan because it presented a long-range solution to a harassing problem even though he "hated to lose the revenue."

Tom Swell plays the role of the drop press agent, entrusted with the job of giving Miss Mansfield a build-up so she will have the big time class desired by Edmond O'Brien, who has the part of the gangster with a penchant for rock 'n' roll music.

Oil Industry Cites Need for Increases

WASHINGTON (UP) — An oil industry leader said today recent increases in oil and gasoline prices stemmed largely from higher costs and a need to encourage development of new oil reserves.

Hines H. Baker, president of the Humble Oil & Refining Co., Houston, Tex., said this in testimony prepared for a Senate investigation of the oil-for-Europe program and domestic price increases that followed its inauguration.

Baker was the first oil industry spokesman to be heard by a joint Senate Antimonopoly — Public Lands subcommittee studying the situation.

"Prices of crude oil, gasoline and petroleum products generally are relatively low," he said.

The price boosts have drawn heavy protests in and out of Congress. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) joined in the protests today as she prepared to testify before the group.

Humble, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, led off a nationwide jump in fuel oil and gasoline prices last month by boosting the price of crude oil by 35 cents a barrel.

Solons Cool to Pressure on Israeli

By DONALD J. GONZALEZ

WASHINGTON (UP) President Eisenhower's call for United Nations "pressure" to force Israel out of Egypt drew a generally cool response in Congress today.

Senate leaders of both parties, and many influential members of both houses, made it plain they still oppose any U. N. sanctions against Israel. There was, however, some support for the President's position.

Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said nothing in Mr. Eisenhower's address last night changed his view that no U. N. punitive measures should be taken against Israel unless also taken against others who defy the world organization.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) voiced "regret that the administration feels that there is no choice but to bring pressure on one side in a two-sided dispute."

Mr. Eisenhower, in his nationwide radio-TV address, said if Israel continues its refusal to put out of Egypt the U. N. "has no choice but to exert pressure upon Israel to withdraw."

But the President gave no explanation of what kind of "pressure" he has in mind other than to speak at one point of "moral pressure."

A high U. S. official said Mr. Eisenhower deliberately left this point vague to give the United States more room to maneuver in the U. N.

The White House disclosed today

the President sent a personal message to Israel Premier David Ben-Gurion yesterday. Informed sources said it contained an advance digest of his speech, and did not constitute an "ultimatum" to Israel. Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerity declined to divulge the contents of the message on grounds it was a personal communication.

How to make three out-of-town phone calls for the price of two

CHICAGO...

SKYline

4-9981,

PLEASE

By making your Long Distance calls station-to-station, you can take advantage of bargain rates—about 1/3 lower than for person-to-person calls. This means you can make three out-of-town calls for about the price of two. Start the station-to-station habit with your next Long Distance call . . . and save money.

Here's how easy it is to make a station-to-station call

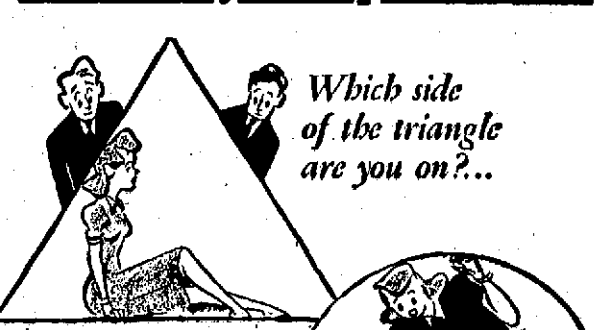

- Just tell the Long Distance operator:
 - * The city you're calling
 - * The telephone number you're calling
- Like this: "Chicago . . . Skyline 4-9981"
- If you don't know the number, just give the operator the name and address of the party you're calling, and tell her: "Please make this call station-to-station."
- That's all there is to it. The operator will give you the number to jot down for future use . . . and your call will be charged at the lower station-to-station rate.

Dope Addiction Portrayed in 3 New Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Dope addiction is portrayed in three movies now filming, but the moralists will be pleased to know that restraint is being used.

The recent easing of the Production Code allows narcotics to be mentioned in films. But Hollywood is not going overboard. The industry has learned that controversies such as that over "Baby Doll" may help an individual picture sell tickets, but the uproar loses friends for the film business as a whole.

"Jeanie Eagels" will show Kim Novak as the gifted actress who brought herself an early death because of drink and dope. Her use of narcotics will only be an incidental point in her downfall, say the film's creators.

Nor will dope be dwelled upon in "The Barney Ross Story." The film will show how Ross became addicted in the service and eventually shook the habit, but it will be subordinate to the theme of a man trying to find himself after ring fame.

About "A Hatful of Rain," director Fred Zinneman said: "We are not aiming for an expose. The characters of the dope pushers, who were pretty frightening in the play, have been toned down. We're concentrating more on the interfamily relationships, rather than the picture of a man who is addicted."

Incidentally, one unconvincing element of "Hatful" on the stage was the point that the wife wasn't aware of her husband's addiction. But Don Murray, who plays the addict, said he did research on dope victims before the filming and "I found in all cases the wife didn't know of her husband's condition for at least three months."

Barney Ross confirms this. "I was on dope for five years and my wife never suspected," he told me.

Russia Vetoes UN Pakistan Visit

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Soviet Union has vetoed a Western plan to send the Security Council president to India and Pakistan in an effort to settle the Kashmir dispute.

The Russian delegate hinted that an alternate proposal by the United States would get the same treatment.

The council and their first in the nine-year-old dispute over whether Kashmir will go to India or Pakistan. The vote was 9-1, with Sweden abstaining.

India, not a council member, objected to any proposal that might lead to sending a U. N. force to Kashmir to pave the way for the plebiscite the U. N. has called for several times.

The Western plan would have sent Gunnar V. Jarring of Sweden, council president for February, to the Indian subcontinent to seek means of ending the Kashmir controversy, possibly by sending a U. N. force there.

Sunday School Lesson

By WILLIAM E. GILROY D. D.

The Bible's pre-eminence is as a book, or books, of religious experience, the truth that its pages offer for guidance, warning, faith and hope.

But even apart from its religious truth, as a book of human experience the Bible has had remarkable interest. And this, I believe, is due in large measure to its universality.

One can hardly overestimate this aspect of the Bible. Take even the matter of its physical environment and climate. If it had come out of a cold country that never knew warmth or heat, much of it would be almost incomprehensible to those in tropical lands; or conversely, a Bible coming out of a torrid zone would have been equally puzzling to those in a cold climate.

I never quite realized how great the limitations of climate and environment can be until a brother minister told me of his experience in coming from a western prairie community to a church meeting in the east.

A neighbor's boy, 17 who had never been away from home, had relatives in Philadelphia, and the minister invited him to come along.

He told me that when they came to the first hill, and not a high one at that, the boy got quite excited. He had never before seen a hill!

The little land of Palestine, homeland of the Bible, smaller in square miles than New Hampshire, comprised within its area practically every sort of scene and climate.

And beyond the amazing little land itself was the vast, outside world of the Bible — Babylon and Egypt, Persia, Greece and Rome. There is no part of the physical world for which one cannot find a counterpart in the homeland, and homelands, of the Bible.

And this physical universality is no more remarkable than the Bible's universality in terms of human life. Is there any experience of mankind, any sort of man or woman, who is not somewhere there?

The greatest saints and the most wicked persons, the Marys and the Jezebels, the persecutors and the martyrs, despotic, evil kings, wise rulers, nobility in purple, peasants in the fields, warriors, men of peace — every type of man, and every sort of

Would Like to Have Globe Trotting Job

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — There follows an open letter to the manager of Trans-Globe Wire Service.

Dear Sir:
For some time I have been watching with fascination the glamorous lives your reporters lead on Wire Service (ABC-TV), Monday nights. This is in the nature of an application for a job since I believe you can use me and I can use you.

In fact, may have to use you because I may not be employed by my present wire service employer come next week. It's the result of an innocent bit of foolishness inspired by your Monday evening program. Doing it just George Brent did it, wandered into my boss's office and told him I'd just received a mysterious phone call from Mexico stating that a Latin American dictator was to be murdered at a bullfight there this week. "How about letting me fly down to cover it?" I asked.

Well, sir, my boss has been looking at me queerly ever since and making discreet inquiries as to my value to the organization.

However, there must be a place for me in your organization. Your Mexico City office obviously needs action, is there.

It is profoundly the book of man even as it is man's book of God.

The universality of the Bible is emphasized in a deeper and more important way in the life and teaching of Jesus.

The locality, the scene, the local manners or customs, may give color to an incident, but they do not affect the heart of the truth. Truth applies equally to every time and place.

This is seen particularly in the Parables of Jesus. The woman searching for a lost piece of silver (Luke 15) might be any woman, anywhere; the Samaritan helping a victim of thieves on the road to Jericho might be a driver of today stopping to aid the victim of a highway accident, while others, like the priest and the Levite, hasten by.

Jesus is for all the world, because His life and truth were for Galilean provincial, but a Teacher and Savior, with a world mission sending forth His disciples to make disciples of all nations.

strengthening, for one place. When George had the murder drop practically in his lap at the bullfight, he bypassed your Mexican bureau and went straight to the main office which apparently is in Hollywood. You can't get away with that in my wire service.

However, if there's no place in Mexico, you're obviously short of rewrite men in the home office. Because who took George's dictation? You did, sir it was one of the most moving moments of my life. There you sat in a two-tone vest taking dictation — in short hand no less, never knew a wire service boss who took shorthand. And the only two-tone vest around here is worn by a copy boy who takes action lessons nights.

While not as good an actor as your star reporters, George Brent and Dane Clark and Mercedes McCambridge, feel I'm a smarter, er, reporter.

Some time ago, you remember, one of them sat quietly on the story when somebody tried to assassinate a presidential candidate. Another time one flew to Hong Kong to interview repatriated Korean veterans and fell for a story by an obvious psycho and got himself into all kinds of messes as a result. Then there was the time — aw, the heck with it.

Their entertainment value is fine, but I sometimes worry about a kid out in Nebraska somewhere who watches wide-eyed and decides to become a wire service reporter. If he ends up with Trans-Globe, he'll be all right. But supposing he does with another outfit — or joins the city staff of the local paper.

Supposing he remembers George Brent and begins pacing the city room, muttering, "I'm bored . . . restless . . ." There goes his newspaper career.

However, this is an application for a job. If you'll hire me for one of those glamorous jobs, I promise to keep my coat on at all times, I'll keep my feet off my desk and never read a paper in working hours and keep my lunch hours short. I'll keep my

Hints of New Scandal in Basketball

By The Associated Press
Is a new gambling scandal brewing in college basketball? The Des Moines Iowa Register said last night that a referee was suspected of helping put over betting coups.

The official was not named, but the story vividly recalled the gambling revelations that rocked the sport in 1951 and earlier in 1945. Then players on many top teams, notably CCNY's 1950 national Collegiate and NIT champions, were involved.

While it has been generally recognized that betting on college games has increased the last several years, no players were reported involved in a betting coup. The Register said that occurred last week. The Register said that Minneapolis gamblers were suspicious of the unnamed official because, "they suspect him of assisting in betting coups by using his whistle to control the point spread — the number of points by which a game is decided. A sudden last minute spurge of betting on a game last week was mentioned — a spurge in which the betters are said to have made a killing."

At least two Iowa schools received telephone calls recently were indicated by a federal grand jury in Minneapolis after an investigation of an alleged midwest gambling syndicate.

Shower of Blessings
Wednesday, February 20, at 8:30 p. m., the Manse of Lonoke Baptist Church was the scene of a surprise "Food Shower" given by Mesdames Mattie Smith, Dually Phillips, Alice Stroughter, and other members of Lonoke, and friends, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. James E. Coby.

The Pastor and wife are humbly grateful to God and everyone for this and other blessings, and pray that we may be, and grow more Christlike day by day, for truly the Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Miss Earnestine Jack, Reporter.

Area Home Demonstration Leadership Training Meeting
Held at Yerger High School. Home demonstration council officers and subject matter leaders included Lafayette, Columbia, Nevada, Union, Ouachita, Miller, Clark, and Hempstead attended a leadership training meeting conducted for the purpose of strengthening the home demonstration program in these counties.

Registration began at 9:30 a. m., with 48 women registering for the purpose of the meeting was given by Mrs. Nancy Scott, president of the State Home Demonstration Council. And while the group was still in its general assembly a panel — "Are We Keeping Pace?" — was participated in by a representative from each county. This was certainly an interesting presentation and Mrs. Thelma Richie represented Hempstead County quite well.

Other interesting features of the program were: an address — "Looking Into the Future" — given by Mrs. Fannie Mae Boone, Home Demonstration Agent; a quiz — "We Have A Secret" — conducted by Miss Dorothy Price, District Home Demonstration Agent, South West; and a lecture by Professor A. Tate on "Making the Home Demonstration Club Program More Effective."

Two subject matter group workshops were participated in by leaders from each county. The home furnishings leaders had as their instructor Mrs. Juanice, Extension Home Furnishings Specialist, and the health leaders had as their instructor Miss Helen Robinson, Extension Health Specialist.

From the reports from each of the three groups, all felt that the day had been well spent and that the information received would certainly strengthen the county extension program.

Leaders attending from the county were Mesdames Sarah Henagan, Rhoda Jones, Thelma Richie, Cleo Johnson, Alletta Scott, Catherine Dixon, and Gracie Harris.

Your reporter is Cleo Johnson.

Boxing Future of Aragon Is Very Doubtful

LOS ANGELES (AP) Ring officials say Art Aragon's boxing future is "very doubtful" following his conviction on a felony fighting charge.

The 29-year-old "Golden Boy" was found guilty yesterday of offering another Los Angeles welterweight, Dick Gansel, $500 to throw a fight scheduled for Dec. 18 at San Antonio, Tex.

The California Athletic Commission said Aragon's 1957 boxing license would not be issued.

After the jury's verdict yesterday, Clayton Frye, secretary of the commission, said that in his opinion Aragon's ring chances were "very doubtful."

Aragon, third-ranking welterweight at the time of his arrest, stared blankly when the verdict was read.

He walked stoically from the courtroom as tears welled up in the eyes of his pretty red-haired wife, Georgia, later he told newsmen: "Honest to God, it isn't so."

Aragon's attorney said that he would file a motion for a new trial March 14, a week before the date set by Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker for probation hearing and sentence.

The conviction carries a possible maximum sentence of five years in prison, a maximum fine of $5,000 or both.

Aragon, currently unranked, has had close to 100 fights and has earned nearly a half million dollars in the ring. Friends say he has invested it wisely.

Hank's Dog House Damaged by Fire

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 20-minute fire early today brought $20,000 damage at Hank's Dog House, a restaurant here, owner Henry W. Cochran, estimated.

Firemen confined the early morning blaze to the kitchen, but Cochran said other portions of the two-level brick building sustained smoke and water damage.

The restaurant, remodeled about a year ago, has three dining rooms and seats about 300 persons. The blaze apparently started behind the dishwasher, firemen said.

Yerger Takes Three Games From Rosston

The Yerger Tigers played host to the Oak Grove High School of Rosston Tuesday night and the Tigers won all three games the Junior Boys 38-20, Senior Girls 25-17 and the Senior Boys 48-44.

Outstanding players for the Tigers were Douglass Williamson, Clifford Tyus and Donald Rosa for the Junior Boys, Lorene Straughter, Annie Brown and Darlene Jamison for the Senior Girls, and C. W. White, Maurice Champion, James Pearson and Theodius Johnson for the Senior Boys.

Williamson scored 18 points, Straughter scored 24 points, and Pearson and Johnson scored 16 points each. The Tigers will play their next home game Tuesday, February 26, when Hot Springs will be visitors. Game time 7:30 p. m. Admission 25c Students 50c Adults.

Oaklawn Sees Bigger Crowds, Better Horses

HOT SPRINGS, Feb. 22 (AP) — Bigger crowds and classier horses are predicted—as usual—for the 31 day Oaklawn Park racing meet but the Inaugural Handicap tomorrow may end exactly as it did in 1956 — with everybody chasing Styrraner across the finish line.

However, the pride of Mrs. M. C. Creech's stable may find tough competition from such well known campaigners as Olen Sledge's Jimmy The One.

Some 12,000 to 14,000 betters are expected for the start of the annual meet, provided the weather continues warm and calm, and the estimate does not seem too high in view of the steady increase in interest. The Oaklawn Jockey Club, which recently was granted a "perpetual" franchise by the Arkansas Legislature, has reported increases in season crowds and pari-mutuel betting almost every year since the sport was revived in the mid-1930s.

Brooklyn Plans to Move Club to Los Angeles

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (INS) — The Brooklyn Dodgers and the Chicago Cubs disclosed today plans, which would move the Brooklyn franchise to Los Angeles.

Brooklyn would open its 1957 National League season on the Pacific Coast if necessary details can be worked out.

A joint statement issued in Chicago by P. K. Wrigley, owner of the Cubs, and Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers, said: "The Chicago Cubs, as owners of the Los Angeles franchise of the Pacific Coast League, and the Brooklyn Dodgers, as owners of the Fort Worth franchise of the Texas League, have asked these two leagues for permission and approval to exchange franchises and territorial rights in Los Angeles and Fort Worth to be effective for the 1957 season."

If the directors of the Pacific Coast League approve the transfer of the Los Angeles franchise to the Brooklyn Dodgers prior to the 1957 season, Brooklyn will acquire from Los Angeles by purchase the real estate and structures known as Wrigley Field of Los Angeles.

Giants May Leave If the Bums Do

NEW YORK (AP) — If the Brooklyn Dodgers ever shift their franchise to the Pacific Coast, the baseball Giants may leave New York, too.

The New York Mirror in a telephone conversation with Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants at Scottsdale, Ariz., quoted him as saying "If the Dodgers moved it could change our thinking. I wouldn't for a moment try to stop O'Malley (Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers) from moving if he thought it would be sound business to do so. x x x But I think it would be more practical for both, rather than one team to go."

Stoneham was quoted further: "After, if we couldn't retain our rivalry New York might not be as attractive. While we might be interested in trying to salvage that rivalry geographically, it doesn't necessarily follow that we would move into their area. x x x We would consider several locations and then have to determine which was the most attractive."

Crows Take Over Albuquerque, N. M.

By JACK SAMSON
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) Rio Grande Valley crows apparently have decided the city offers the best opportunities.

The rascals are cluttering alleys, peering into garbage cans, raiding back yard gardens, stealing anything they can haul off and making life miserable for late-sleeping humans.

Anyone who hasn't been jolted bolt upright in bed lately by a raucous croak near the bedroom window, probably can expect it soon.

Since there are laws against blasting these noisy creatures out of the trees inside the city limits, there is nothing to do but turn over in bed and think evil thoughts.

Juniors Lose Out in State Tournament

Hope's Junior Bobcats were defeated by Forrest City last night in the opening round to the State tournament at Jonesboro. The score was 28 to 32.

The Little Bobcats went into the second half with a lead but were unable to connect in the third period and that proved their downfall. Held to only two points in that quarter the Hope lads were never able to overcome the Forrest City lead.

Basilio Given Nod Over John Saxton

By JACK HAND
CLEVELAND (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio's slugging edge makes him a strong favorite to solve Johnny Saxton's hit-and-run style in their third title fight tonight.

Assured by Basilio that his once-damaged right has completely healed, most boxing men are picking the 29-year-old left hoker from Canastota, N. Y. Saxton is a 13-5 underdog.

Saxton says he will revert to his old boxing style that earned him a questionable but unanimous decision at Chicago last March 14. When he tried to stand and slug with Basilio in this Sept. 12 rematch at Syracuse, N. Y. he was cut up and topped in nine rounds. "I'm going to box him this time," said Saxton after he completed training. "If they want to, I'll go to the limit."

Basilio said it won't make any difference what Saxton does because he will be ready for anything. He insists he is in the best condition of his 68-bout career.

The fighter will cut into the $60,000 radio-TV fee and also will share the estimated $100,000 gate receipt with 3 per cent going to each man. Each could get about $43,000.

Neither boxer has been in action since their September brawl although they have been training hard.

Basilio own a 49-12-7 record in a career dating back to 1948. He has knocked out 23 men and never was stopped. Saxton's record is 53-5-2 for 60 starts with 21 knockouts.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p. m., EST.
